Wrinkles

Around the Eyes

Are usually caused by defective sight. Many women, and likewise men, look prematurely old from these wrinkles. The wrinkles in many cases can be removed by wearing correctly fitted glasses. To fit glasses correctly demands a thorough knowledge of refraction and the necessary instruments. We have both; hundreds of satisfied customers will say so.

BENBOW THANNKSGIVING.

Handsome Decorations and an Elegant Dinner.

When Thanksgiving catches the tired and travel-worn commercial salesman many miles from home, when he cannot worship and dine with the home folks, he must call it a sad and lonesome Thanksgiving Day. However, the travelling man who is fortunate enough to be at the Benbow House in Greensboro on this happy day finds himself to be little the loser. Manager Morton always does his best on Thanksgiving and his best is always "the" best. Yesterday the dining room was elaborately decorated with a bountiful supply of the largest and loveliest crysanthemums it has ever been our felicity to behold. The flowers were furnished from Capt. Fisher's hot house at Asheboro, and a look at them is sufficient to establish the fact that the genial captain is something of a florist as well as a financier. Mrs. Morton displayed the most exquisite taste in arranging the embellishments of the dining room.

Manager Morton's part—the preparation of the bill of fare—was most important and difficult, but as usual he mastered the task and prepared the following excellent menu, which was partaken of by many from the city, besides a large number of travelling men.

A Romantic Marriage.

Rumor has it that Miss Eva Bowles, who left here Wednesday, leaving her friends under the impression that she was going to Norfolk to visit relatives, was met in Graham by Mr. Caldwell, of Durham, and that they were married in the former town that afternoon. Miss Bowles is an accomplished and justly popular young lady, while Mr. Caldwell is one of Durham's most esteemed young men. The news of their marriage will be quite a surprise to their friends here. The Telegram extends congratulations.

Hairston-Glenn.

Gen. Jas. D. Glenn, of this city, and Miss Sadie Hairston were married at the home of the bride near Martinsville, Va., Wednesday at high noon. The wedding was attended by about one hundred friends and relatives of both parties. After the marriage a reception was held and those present from here say it was a brilliant event. The bride and groom are now on a bridal tour in the north. Those of the General's friends who went from here returned yesterday

WILL EXHAUST HER LIMIT.

Before Replying to Offer Regarding The Philippines.

LIMIT EXPIRES NEXT MONDAY.

Meanwhile Spain is Exhausting Every Resource To Postpone What is Recognized as Inevitable.

By Cable THE TELEGRAM.

Paris, Nov. 25—It is now known that Spain will exhaust her time limit, which expires next Monday, before replying to the American offer regarding the Philippines. Meanwhile the Spaniards are exhausting every resource to postpone the inevitable. They doubt the fixedness of the amount the Americans have offered and today sent a note to the Americans asking if they would accept a counter proposal from Spain to cede the Philippines for one hundred millions.

Spain thinks the Americans might be willing to lop off the great island of Mindaneo from the Philippines and pay Spain fifty millions for what remained, instead of twenty millions for the entire archipelago. Spain will learn in response to such inquiries that the Americans employ the word "ultimatum" to signify the ultimate conditions. However she may seek to increase her money advantage for the cession of the Philippines, she will finally be compelled to understand that the offer means twenty millions—no more, no less.

A LOVELY DISPLAY.

The Large Stock of Caldcleugh Bros., China Dealers.

A Telegram reporter was, this morning, shown through the mammoth establishment of Caldcleugh Brothers, dealers in china and glassware and christmas novelties, and to pass it by without notice, would be a great injustice to the up-to-date proprietors. Nearly all the new fall stock has arrived and the pretty display of fine goods would be a credit to a much larger city than Greensboro. Messrs. Caldcleugh Bros. are perhaps the largest crockery dealers in North Carolina. Surely no other city affords a handsomer display of fine goods.

In the front of the building the Christmas novelties are displayed and no Christmas trick can be imagined, that cannot be found here. Further back presents for the older folks, are displayed. Still further and occupying half the large store, is displayed the handsomest line of fine chinaware that money could procure, coming from almost every country where chinaware is manufactured and the best that is made in each country.

In the basement in the rear of the store, the express wagons, carts, velocipedes and everything of that description is kept. In the front window on the left are two large palms grown on the banks of the Amazon in South America

Throughout their establishment this firm displays a splendid line of goods which it is impossible to describe and has to be seen in its lavish sumptuousness to be appreciated. Messrs. Caldcleugh will take pleasure in showing you through whether you wish to buy or not, if you call before the Christmas rush begins.

A Treat.

We are informed that Dr. Alderman of the State University will lecture in Greensboro on December 9th upon his recent trip abroad. His subject will be "Egypt and the Nile." He comes here where he has numberless friends and admirers under the auspices of the board of managers of the library. And it is to be hoped that no other entertainment will fall upon Friday, Dec. 9. He deserves to have a good, full audience to hear his thoughts upon this interesting subject.

Special Sermon to the Juniors.

NOTES FROM HIGH POINT.

The Local News From Our Neighbor Briefly Told.

TELEGRAM BUREAU.
HIGH POINT, N. C. Nov. 25

Mr. A. S. Ellison, formerly owner and editor of the High Point Citizen, has sold the Citizen and job printing business to Mr. H. A. Foote, of Carthage, N. C. Mr. Foote is a man of twelve years experience in job printing and newspaper business. He comes to us well recommended as a gentleman and business man, and we welcome him to our city and wish him success.

Sometime ago when we were "in the dark" so much the cry then was water, so the light committee dug a well and bought two new engines and a boiler, and now the cry is wood. In fact that is the cry with many of us, but we don't have to furnish light for other people. We trust that the power company will get in a supply of wood and get down to business.

Of all the oyster suppers, festivals, or entertainments of any kind to raise money for any good cause, we believe the one last night given by the school and the young ladies and other good people of the city, surpassed all previous entertainments of the kind ever been given during our sojourn in this community. The tables were nicely arranged with two young ladies at each table as waiters. The total receipts amounted to $54.07. The school requests us to thank the many prominent young ladies, who acted as waiters and who in such a satisfactory and graceful manner performed their duties, also to thank the many good people present who contributed to this good cause—the Graded school library We trust that ere long we will witness a repetition of last night's oyster supper.

The funeral services over the remains of the late A. H. Welch, who died in Charlotte Tuesday, were held here yesterday at the home of his brother, Mr. J. J. Welch, conducted by Rev. J. R. Scroggs.

Several of our most popular young people gave a reception Wednesday night at the residence of Mr. J.H.Millis complimentary to Miss Anna Harrold, the charming daughter of Dr. Harrold, of Indianapolis, who is visiting in the city. It was voted by all present as an exceedingly pleasant social event.

THE HOME GAME.

Northside and Southside Tried Conclusions on The Gridiron.

The game between the two city football teams, the Northsiders and Southsiders, at Athletic Park yesterday afternoon was quite an interesting affair to the two hundred or more spectators who witnessed it.

The two teams were very evenly matched, as is shown by the fact that neither side scored. Most of the playing was in the Northsider's territory, the Southerners being on the aggressive throughout the game, a goal only being prevented by punting by Causey, right half back of the Northside team.

The rushes of the Southsiders were irresistible, steady gains being made through right tackle and guard at every attempt. Ingram's run of 70 yards or more around left end was the star play of the game. Causey and Andrews did the work for Northside, Mendenhall, Ingram and Love did the same for Southside.

The line-up as played was as follows:

Northside.		Southside.
Rees,	center	Glascock.
Donnell,	right guard	Guthrie.
Pearce,	right tackle	Sellars.
Quate,	right end	Love.
Causey,	right half back	Mendenhall.
Andrews,	left half back	Ingram.
Tyson,	full back	Reynolds.
Schenck	quarter back	Morton.

Schenck, referee. Reynolds umpire.

It Was the Best.

A full house at the Academy of music last night witnessed the best performance ever seen in this city by a popular priced company. "Was She Guilty, or Free at Last" was the bill put on, and each member of the company was a star. Every part was well taken, and played with vim and snap, that caught the big audience and held it until the close. The Myrkle and Harder company won new laurels last night. Tonight they play "Young America."

SUBJECT OF YELLOW FEVER

Interesting The Minds of Washington Officials.

THANKSGIVING AT THE CAPITAL

Ushered into By The First Snow Storm of The Season—Football Lovers Disappointed.

Special to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, Nov. 25—Surgeon General Wyman has just returned from a trip south. He was seen at the headquarters of the Marine hospital the other day, and he added his endorsement to the project to secure the appointment of a bacteriological commission to study into the causes and prevention of yellow fever, and stated that he thought congress should take up the subject at the coming session. It is stated on authority that the President will incorporate the recommendations of his last annual message upon this subject in the message which he is now preparing.

Surgeon General Wyman is naturally much interested in the subject of yellow fever, and is anxions that all means possible should be taken to prevent the reintroduction of the disease into the country next spring. He stated that from observations made during his recent trip south to the yellow fever section that he thought the states in that section could add to the efficiency of the work by adopting suitable health laws, and quarantine laws. The Florida plan meets with the approval of the Surgeon General, and he thinks if each state in the south would study those plans, and adopt similar laws it would aid in preventing the spread of the disease.

Surgeon General Wyman went to St. Louis the early part of the week and delivered a lecture in that city, and received a very hearty welcome.

The call issued by the Governor of Florida for a national convention of the national guard to assemble at Tampa February 8th for the purpose of formulating plans for the reorganization of the guard is being very favorably received by the governors of the different states, and the outlook is that nearly all of the states will be represented. It is also likely that delegates will be appointed to represent the District of Columbia at the convention. The object of the convention is to aid the government in placing the national guard of the country on the most effective footing possible.

Thanksgiving Day in Washington was ushered in by the first snow storm of the season, which began about seven or eight o'clock in the morning and continued until in the afternoon The snow melted as fast as it fell, although it put the streets in a very bad condition. The storm disappointed many lovers of football as there was to be a crack game between the Columbian and Georgetown universities.

Considerable interest was taken among the lovers of the sport in this city in the game at Richmond, Virginia, between the universities of Virginia and North Carolina. Wednesday quite a number of both teams passed through Washington on their way to Richmond.

Among the southern people in Washington, is Col Thomas Keogh, of Greensboro, N C. Col. Keogh was formaly a member of the republican national committee from the state. The Colonel says that during the past campaign much bitterness was engendered, which he fears will last some time, and he admits that it will be an impossibility for the republicans to ever carry the state again. White republicans, he says, in a contest of the character which North Carolina has been through will stand by their own race for white supremacy. In speaking of the senatorial situation. Col. Keogh thinks senator Butler will be succeeded by ex-representative Simmons, or Mr. Julian Carr, a wealthy citizen of Durham, N. C.

Dr. D. H. Abbott, of Raleigh, is among the prominent arrivals in Washington city. The Doctor is on his way east, and stopped over, registering at the Raleigh Hotel.

Among other North Carolina people in the city are, Messrs M. M, Little, and Charles L. Ewing.

Mr. Jordan S. Thomson, of Charlotte, is at the Hotel Raleigh.

INTEREST IN THE FIGHT.

The Daily Record of Wednesday, answers the Telegram of Tuesday, by saying the article referred to "was written before conference met on that day, and was not intended to be descriptive of anything that took place." In the column immediately preceding the one from which we clipped the item upon which our comment was based, the Record printed two special reports from Winston, concerning that day's proceedings, both of which referred to the paper question, one of them saying "a heated discussion took place" and the other saying "the discussion over the paper question waxed warm." We therefore naturally and innocently believed the comment on the day's proceedings had been made after the news was received. It looked as if there could be no doubt about it when the comment began: "It has been warm in conference today at Winston" etc. So much for that. The only other point we wish to notice is in the following paragraph from the Record:

This paper has taken no especial interest in the Trinity fight, except when the characters of citizens of Greensboro have been attacked, or at least their motives impugned—men like Drs. Crawford, Carraway, Weaver and others. They are honored citizens of Greehsboro, and Christian gentlemen of the highest integrity; but because Dr. Crawford dared to intimate that he could not endorse Dr. Kilgo's course, the edit goes forth that "he cannot live."

No especial interest? Well, we have. Ever since this writer became a member of the Methodist church, he has at all time taken an interest in everything that was of interest to that church. We have a right to be interested, and that interest has not been based solely on the sweet privilege of defending the character of any man or men who needed no defense.

We have watched matters very closely, and we have failed to see where the gentleman referred to in the paragraph have needed the support of any one. Their characters have not been arrested, and so far as our observation goes, their motives have not been impugned. And, indeed, if they had been, we can't imagine how they could appreciate to any great extent, the sympathy and support of a newspaper running barroom advertisements. How any man can promote the Kingdom of God, and be in league with the devil at the same time, is more than we can quite understand.

Drs. Crawford, Weaver and Carraway need no defense in Greensboro, as we see it. But if what has been said of them may be construed as impugning their motives, surely what has been said of Rev. Dr. Ivey, has been worse. He is not only an "honored Christian gentleman" but is a citizen sent here by the great body of Methodists composing the North Carolina conference, as their representative, and is therefore eminently entitled to respect and consideration. Why has the Record failed to utter one syllable in his behalf? The reason is plain. He has held different views from the other three named gentlemen. Our contemporary's "interin the Trinity fight" has been based solely on "whose ox was gored."

Constipation prevents the body from ridding itself of waste matter. De Witt's Little Early Risers will remove the trouble and cure Sick Headache, Biliousness, Inactive Liver and clear the Complexion. Small, sugar coated, do not gripe or cause nausea. Howard Gardner.

THE M. P. CONFESENCE

Now in Session at Liberty, Randolph County.

Liberty, N. C., Nov. 23—The Seventy-third session of the annual conference of the Methodist Protestant church met today. It promises to be a session of unusual interest.

The C. F. & Y. V. railroad company was exceedingly to furnish a special train from Greensboro, accommodating a large per cent of the delegation.

It has become natural to see Rev. Walter A. Bunch in the chair. This closes his seventh term. He served four successive years, '89—92; and has been re-elected each year since '95.

Rev. W. F. Kennett was elected president for the coming year on the fifth ballot. Rev. C. L. Whitaker was a close competitor.

Rev. T. M. Johnson was elected secretary.

President Bunch's annual report was full of vital utterances:

"The past year has required unusual vigilence and effort on the part of the pastors. They have had to meet and withstand the great strain consequent upon the military and political excitement, which has so inflamed the mined of the state and nation and brought in their wake the usual demoralizing effect upon the church.

"The pastor who has held his forces and field, may truly be regarded as a hero."

Again, "Our principles (of the Methodist Protestant church) are the logical reasoning of the dominant race of the globe, with a mind culturged by the gospel maxim of personal responsibility. They are really the ideal form of government. * * *

"The pure democratic idea incorporated in our constitution has so imbedded itself in the minds of all Methodists that the Bishop is fast becoming a figure head."

"We are charged as having no right, as a church, to exist, since the Methodist Episcopal bodies have adopted lay delegation. Therefore, the publication of our principles is the more important to meet and to disprove this false statement; and to show to an enlightened public that lay delegation, largely shaped and controlled by the power of a bishop, is not the same as lay representation elected by the church membership, which has no bishop to influence their election nor to domineer their action."

In the evening session, Mr. M. F. Hatcher in an eloquent and thoughtful address, welcomed the conference to Liberty.

Rev. W. E. Swain responded in a happy address.

The stationing committee elected are Rev. W. A. Bunch and Dr. F. R. Harris, of Henderson.

The conference will meet next year on Nov. 22d.

Rev. T. M. Johnson, Mrs. J. S. Hunter and Mr. J. Norman Wills, of Grace church, are in attendance.

YESTERDAY'S PROCEEDINGS.

This is Thanksgiving day, and a bright day for conference work. In addition to the routine business there were many happy occurrences.

Dr. J. N. Gill, of Asheville, in a tasteful speech, presented to the conference a gavel, to the honor of Rev. W. A. Bunch, ex-president and Rev. C. L. Whitaker, exsecretary.

The gavel mallet is ivy wood from Yancey county. It is of the Rhododendron family and grows on the banks of the Cane river, (the Indians called the river Seene, meaning clear.) Dr. Gill said the water might typify our church of workers and co-workers in the vineyard of our Lord.

The ivy flowers of white, blue, purple, scarlet and pink are the emblems of our polity. The gavel handle is Juniper Wood and stands for the durability of our principles. The gavel was made in Greensboro, the central point of our work. This suggests the fact that Greensboro has our Publishing house, whence comes the educating influences of our beloved Church Record.

Rev. J. E. Hartsell preached the conference sermon. The text was Isaiah 52:1.

The next conference will meet at Friendship in Stanly county, Nov. 22nd, 1899.

Rev. J. C. Berrien, Secretary of the Board of Ministerial Education, was introduced to the conference. He is from Steuhenville, Ohio.

The trustees of the publishing house in Greensboro made their annual report and a rising vote of thanks was tendered to the trustees for their wisdom in managing the enterprise.

Rev. J. F. McCulloch, of Our Church Record, came down today. He will speak tonight on "Finance."

TRINITY WINS.

In The Annual Debate With Wake Forest.

Metropolitan Hall, Raleigh, was packed last night to hear the second annual debate between Trinity and Wake Forest colleges. The subject for discussion was: "Resolved, that the United States should not adopt a policy of territorial expansion."

Trinity had the affirmative (against expansion), and Wake Forest the negative (for expansion) side of the question.

The speakers were: Trinity—H. M. North, J. M. Flowers and S. A. Stewart. Wake Forest—W. F. Fry, J. C. Owen and Walter Johnson. Hon. H. G. Connor, Maj. H. A. London and Hon. R. M. Furman were the judges. The speeches are all described as being worthy of high praise. The decision was given to Trinity and the victors were presented with a handsome silver cup, the gift of the Raleigh Chamber of Commerce. In commenting on the great event the Morning Post says:

While Wake Forest did not win in this oratorical and argumentative contest, the representatives of that institution have nothing to be ashamed of. They conducted themselves in the most creditable manner, and won the praise and plaudits of all who listened to their masterly speeches.

As for Trinity, that noble old institution has had fresh laurels added to her, and her representatives have cause to feel a just pride in winning a victory over such clever opponents.

Raleigh people have only the kindest wishes for all the boys and rejoices that the state has two such magnificent institutions of learning, upon which largely depend the future training, success and glory of her youth.

'RAH FOR CAROLINA.

University Footballists Champions of the South.

Richmond, Nov. 24—The orange and purple went down before the blue and white on the gridiron here today. In the presence of some 3,000 spectators, the University of North Carolina eleven defeated the University of Virginia by a score of 6 to 2. The Virginians had the weight, and, naturally, the sympathy of the crowd, Richmond being a great university city, but the Corolinians had the skill and buckled down to their work with a determination and steadiness and discipline that elicited the warmest admiration The The contest was warm throughout. The feature of the game was Howell's splendid 40-yard dash for a touchdown, skirting Virginia's right end.

The brilliant interference of Gregory, of North Carolina, was also one of the features of the contest and but for his star work, Howell's successful dash to the touch line would have been impossible. Carolina played a heady game throughout, and ascertaining in the struggle that it was next to impossible for them to force Virginia's heavy line, they attacked the guards and the ends and resorted to kicks and punts, all of which kept Virginia from making any dangerous advances. Capt. Rogers, of Carolina, lost his head in the last play of the game and in a risky attempt to make a touchdown back, was downed beyond the touch line, thereby giving Virginia her safety. The officers of the game and the coach and captain of the Virginia team say that Carolina won strictly on the merits of their play.

Just as the game w s called, Virginia made a safety on which she was given 2 points, making the score: North Carolina, 6; Virginia, 2.

A Ute Funeral.

All night long the ceaseless, muffled beating of the medicine tomtom had come to us across the hot, barren, alkali flats; all night long the dismal wailing of the bereaved squaws and the lonesome howl of the masterless dog, crying like lost spirits, had come to us out of the darkness, plaintive and weird; all night long we had rolled and tossed on our blankets, spread upon the broad breast of mother earth, underneath the silent, watchful stars, and now, as the first pink blush of breaking morn began to revolve out of infinity into a newborn day, we rose, unrefreshed and weary.

A blood red sun thrust his scorching rays across the rugged peaks of the Book plateau. All nature seemed aflame, and as our tired, aching eyes sought what rest there could be found in the dingy green of the few scrub cedars that marked the single variation to the otherwise unbroken glare of whiteness a strange, sad procession emerged from them and wended its way toward us. As it approached we could see the cortege plainly. There were the patient, sad eyed women, their faces blackened by charcoal, their hair disheveled, their garments rent and covered with ashes. There were the favorite dog and horse of the dead warrior, the latter fully equipped, as though ready for a journey, and so he was. There was the corpse itself, borne, all bedecked and enshrouded, to its last earthly resting place.—Lippincott's.

A Natural Fog Horn.

At the Farallones the erosive agents have worked with queer caprice. This rock, being granite, has been acted upon by the sea at all levels and throughout the long period when it has been rising out of the watery depths. Through a long narrow hole, slanting and communicating with the ocean, there comes at intervals a terrific stream of air, forced by the spasmodic heaving of the waves against the lower orifice. The government, which uses this island for lighthouse purposes, inclosed the upper end with the nozzle of a fog horn, and every few seconds there was blown an ear splitting brawl, which was heard far out at sea and above the din of the breaking rollers.

It was allowed to roar only in foggy weather, but it was eccentric in that it would only sound at high tide. When the tide was low, although the weather might be very thick, the thing was silent. For lack of its warning a ship went ashore upon the island rocks, and then it was that the government abandoned its location on the wind hole and erected a steam siren or mechanical fog horn, which has since very faithfully performed the necessary service.—"Our Seaboard Islands on the Pacific," by John E. Bennett, in Harper's Magazine.

Overcome evil with good. Overcome your coughs and colds with One Minute Cough Cure. It is so good children cry for it. It cures croup, bronchitis, pneumonia, grippe, and all throat and lung diseases. Howard Gardner.

No Cure—No Pay.

That is the way all druggists sell Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic for Chills and Malaria. It is simply iron and quinine in a tasteless form. Children love it. Adults prefer it to bitter, nauseating tonics. Price, 50c.

How to Look Good.

Good looks are really more than skin deep, depending entirely on a healthy condition of the vital organs. If the liver is inactive you have a bilious look; if your stomach is disordered you have a dyspeptic look; if your kidneys are affected you have a pinched look. Secure good health and you will surely have good looks. "Electric Bitters" is a good alterative and tonic. Acts directly on the stomach, liver and kidneys, purifies the blood, cures pimples, blotches and boils, and gives a good complexion. Every bottle guaranteed. Sold at C. E. Holton's drug store. 50 cents per bottle.

A Sure Sign of Croup.

Hoarseness in a child that is subject to croup is a sure indication of the approach of the desease. If Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is given as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the croupy cough has appeared, it will prevent the attack. Many mothers who have croupy children always keep this remedy at hand and finds that it saves them much trouble and worry. It can always be depended upon and is pleasant to take. For sale by, C. E. Holton.

The First New York regiment will be forwarded in sections from Honolulu in time to eat their Christmas dinner at home.

Notice.

Under Secs. 52-53, of revenue act, it becomes my duty to return to judge and solicitor of our December court a list of all delinquents in property and poll taxes for the year 1897, as well as of all delinquents in special or license taxes of every kind for 1897 and 1898. I am preparing lists, and give fair warning to all. Failure to pay taxes is a misdemeanor. Respect.,

A CARD.

I understand that a report is being circulated in the city to the effect that I have retired from the insurance business and I desire to announce to my friends and the public generally, that this report is UNTRUE.

I am still actively engaged in the

FIRE INSURANCE BUSINESS

And have recently associated with myself in the business Mr. S. H. Boyd. We can be found in our office, Room No. 6, KATZ BUILDING, at all times during business hours and will be glad to continue to serve our friends and the public.

We represent companies, whose SURPLUS aggregates more than $35,000,000, and we will meet all giving to all business intrusted to us, prompt and careful attention.

Thanking my friends for their liberal patronage in the past and asking a continuance of the same, I am Yours truly,

R. G. GLENN.

Richards and Pringles minstrels, who played here last year, and are so well remembered by those who attended the performance, have arranged to appear here again on December 2nd.

Mr. J. F. Herring and bride, nee Miss Wynn, of Enfield who were married yesterday at the home of the bride, spent last night at the Allen, and left this afternoon for Mt. Airy, their future home.

The Guilford College football team passed through at noon today, returning home from Raleigh, where they were defeated by the A. and M. college team, by a score of of 21 to 0. Guilford defeated them here last year.

The exhibition by the warscope, at the Normal and Industrial College last night was well attended, three or four hundred people, most of whom were college students, being present. Most of the scenes were new and interesting. The entertainment was very much enjoyed by all present.

Of all the dealers in fresh meats, in Greensboro, J. W. Forbis, proprietor of Stall No. 1 at the city market, "takes the cake" When everybody was arranging flowers for Thanksgiving, it was too much for Mr. Forbis, and he placed an arch of pretty chrysanthemums over the front of his stall. From the centre of the arch a wreath of the same flowers is suspended and beneath this is the small door through which the meat is handed out to customers. By the way, Mr. Forbis has the nicest and cleanest stock of meat in town.

Thanksgiving Turkey.

It is hoped that everybody's Thanksgiving turkey was first class, and greatly enjoyed. So far as heard from, they all say it was more so than ever before, because they followed the turkey promptly with a chew of that Home Plate tobacco, kept on sale by those whose names appear in another column.

I am very pleased to state that since I took the agency of Chamberlain's medicines the sale has been very large, more especially of the Cough Remedy In two years I have sold more of this particular remedy than of all other makes for the previous five years. As to it's efficacy, I have been informed by scores of persons of the good result they have received from it, and know its value from the use of it in my own household. It is so pleasant to take that we have to place the bottle beyond the reach of the children.

The Social Standing

of most men is much higher than the sum of their income. To such men it must be good news to learn that they do not have to pinch themselves in order that they may pay the extravagant tailor's bills. We sell perfectly fitting clothes for business, semi-dress or full dress occasions of unquestionable style and superb qualities at prices which permit the saving of almost half tailor's bills. Our best clothes are made by the famous New York tailors, Messrs. Fecheimer, Fishel & Co., whose label on every garment is a guarantee that the clothes are equal to "custom made" in every particular. Therefore, whether it is a sack suit, a cutaway or a Prince Albert frock, a pair of trousers, a top coat or an overcoat that you need, do yourself the justice to at least see our offerings—and then go to your tailor if you like—but you won't.

The Greatest Clothing Sale

In the History of This Country.

$20,000 Worth of Clothing

Must Be Sold in the Next 30 Days

50 pr ct. less than Manufacturers Cost

Sale To Open

WEDNESDAY, November 23.

This stock is representing the production of one of the best and most popular Eastern clothing manufacturers, who finds himself today badly entangled financially, pushed to the very well of ruin, and must save his honorable name at all hazards. You must remember that this is no idle boast nor a statement of a fanciful mind, but we mean to substantiate every syllable we utter. We positively guarantee that our All Wool Clay Worsted Mens Suit for $6.50 must be as good in every detail as the kind sold here for $13.50. An all wool up to date Kersey suit for $5.50 must match any one sold for $12.50. The all wool Cashmere for $3.50 must surpass the $8 kind you get elsewhere. Our $2.50 suit must look as good and wear as good as any $6.50 suit in this market. Covered Cloth and Blue Kersey Overcoats for $4.50 and $5.00 we are satisfied to guarantee to be actually the same as the $10 and $12 goods sold by every retail dealer. Pants for 75 cents, $1 and $1.75 will take place of the best $1.75, $2.25 and $3.00 goods. If you don't find them as we say, bring them back and you shall get your money.

REMEMBER

this is is your first, and possibly the last chance in your entire lifetime, to purchase your clothing direct from the manufacturer at such ridiculously low prices. You are all invited to come, and must come early, for the goods will move fast and you don't want to miss it, the only thing left.

Remember the place. Our store is in the

McAdoo Building,

N. Balser, Manager. Corner East Market and Davie Streets.

P. S.—The first gentleman entering our doors when we are ready for the opening of our sale, will be presented with a suit of clothing worth $8.00.
